

Rossett Acre Reading Ambassador Newsletter

MAY 2024

Welcome to the May 2024 edition of your Reading Ambassador Newsletter written by Isla, Alina, Matilda and Rebecca some of your year 6 reading representatives. We really hope you enjoy....

Meet Sophie Y1,

"I like to read books about fairy's, especially the rainbow fairy series. I love Julia Donaldson, because of her amazing adventurous and magical books. I have been reading since I was 3 and have loved it since."

Meet Thea Y6,

"I like reading but I prefer to listen to audio books. I use borrow box, because you don't have to pay for them and there is a wide variety of books. Recently, I have been listening to an audio book set called A Murder Most Unladylike mystery. I am dyslexic and that doesn't stop me."

Focus on Poetry

Many classes have been enjoying the poems in this beautiful poetry books which was shared in assembly last term. We have discovered a box of unused poetry books in school and will be giving them out at playtime in the first week back after the holidays.

Dozens of children borrowed books from our comedy selection a few weeks ago. Hope you are enjoying them - remember to return them to your Reading Ambassadors when you have finished with them.

Jacqueline Wilson

Our author of the month is Jacqueline Wilson. She is a fabulous writer with some amazing books:

The Tracy beaker series

The other Edie Trimmer

The Hetty feather series

And many more

For older readers: Y5+

Hattie Y6:

"I loved the book fair and thought that there was a fabulous selection of books for all ages. I love Katie Kirby's Lottie Brookes Books and Jamie Smarts. But at the book fair itself, I bought a fab book by David Baddiel."

Book fair

This month the reading ambassadors put on a book fair for kids to come and by books for all ages. It was great fun serving you all and counting up the takings at the end. We managed to raise about £1000 for school through the Book Fair!!

GET INVOLVED! The Reading Ambassadors are wanting to sell pre-loved books next half term.

Please bring any books which you have finished with to the office, or hand them into your class

Reading Ambassadors. We will then sort through the books and organise our sale.
